So You Want To Be An Educator?
LSSC to Host Education Career Expo – Tuesday, November 4th

Leesburg, Fla. – Lake-Sumter State College is hosting two Education Career Expo events on Tuesday, November 4th at the Leesburg and South Lake campuses. These unique events offer individuals of all backgrounds the opportunity to explore LSSC’s programs that help students to begin or advance their career in the education field.

The Education Career Expo is perfect for the working adult or student considering a career in education. The event will feature informational booths, an expert Q&A panel with LSSC instructors and students, financial aid and application assistance, and information about transferring to University of Central Florida.

Attendees will get more information about the following education programs:
- Associate of Science degree in Early Childhood Education
- Certificate in Childcare Center Management
- Certificate in Child Development Early Intervention
- Certificate in Infant and Toddler Specialization.
- Teaching Certification/Educator Preparation Institute - a certification program for individuals holding non-education bachelor’s degrees.
